

THE EURO-ATLANTIC ASSOCIATION

is pleased to invite on Wednesday, June 26 at 14:00 to SEA headquarters (Lubumirski Palace) pl. Żelaznej Bramy 10, Warszawa for:

Should Europe have its own armed forces?

- ▶ what is the level of military cooperation among the EU member states? Will the financial crisis and its political implications stop the creation of a common defence policy?
 - ▶ what conditions must be met in order for the “joint armed force” to become a reality?
 - ▶ what could be the consequences of creating EU armed forces for NATO, and the United States’ presence in the Alliance?
 - ▶ would Poland be able to feel safe?

Opening remarks by SEA President Marek Goliszewski, and Dr Andrzej Karkoszka, former Deputy Minister of Ministry of Defence, will moderate the discussion.

Panellists:

- ▶ prof. dr hab. Roman Kuźniar, University of Warsaw
- ▶ dr Olaf Osica, Director, Centre for Eastern Studies
- ▶ gen. Edward Gruszka, former Operational Commander of Polish Armed Forces

Marek Goliszewski
